

YMCA Sponsors Series Of Forums

Forums On Halls To Last 45 Minutes

YMCA-sponsored barracks forums will be held on company halls on Monday, March 16, Thursday, March 19, Monday, March 23, and Thursday, March 26.

Forum leaders have been chosen and will meet with the students for forty-five minutes beginning at 8:45 on the assigned nights.

The length of the forums has been cut shorter so that it will not interfere with the students study time.

THE YMCA HAS secured outstanding campus men to be the forum speakers. The forums will give the students an opportunity to express their opinions on the subjects being discussed and hear those of others, also to meet and become acquainted with the leaders.

All students are urged to participate in the discussions. Student governors who will meet the speakers and introduce them to their companies are: A-1—Jim Truluck; B-1—Robert Tinsley; C-1—Hoyt Hardee; D-1—Robert McDaniel; A-2—Jess White; B-2—Philip Porcher; C-2—Edwin Nolley; and D-2—Fletcher Derrick.

Also A-3—Terry McMillan; B-3—Harry Smith; C-3—Benny Wiggins; D-3—Tommy Green; A-4—Tom Bookhart; B-4—Marion Smith; and D-4—Ferdie Alsbrooks.

Bloodmobile To Be Here March 23, 24

The Asheville, North Carolina, bloodmobile unit will be at Clemson March 23 and 24. The unit will be set up in the basement of the Clemson Methodist Church from 12 to 6 p. m. on March 23 and 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on March 24.

On March 12 members of Alpha Phi Omega, Blue Key, and Tiger Brotherhood will go to each room on the companies and make appointments with the students to give blood. All students are urged to participate in the drive.

Professor Frank A. Burtner, assistant professor of sociology, is in charge of student donations.

E. F. Byers, professor in the school of engineering, is shown at the stress-strain recording instrument which is recording results in the bamboo tension test. In the lower picture, Mr. Byers shows the method of making flexural tests on bamboo. The government recently made a $10,000 grant to the Clemson School of Engineering for research on the bamboo plant.

College Awarded $10,000 Grant

School Of Engineering To Study Bamboo

A new contract in the amount of $10,000 was awarded recently to Clemson College by the federal government so that the best methods of growing, seasoning and preserving bamboo could be determined.

Tests will be made here to furnish the Department of Agriculture with valuable information including the types of bamboo best suited for structural material, seasoning schedule for commercial bamboo growers, and the best preservation methods for the material.

Approximately fourteen members of the engineering staff have been assigned to this project. Part of the special equipment that will be needed in the tests will be made in the Clemson engineering shops.

During World War II the research and development office of the War Production Board awarded the Clemson Engineering Experiment Station a $50,000 contract to conduct experiments on bamboo as a reinforcing material for concrete. The research contract was awarded the college due to certain preliminary work which had been conducted experiment station.

THE PRELIMINARY work done here at Clemson was not the first attempt made to show the possibilities of using bamboo as a reinforcing material in concrete, but it was of sufficient importance to indicate that it might be successfully used as a substitute for steel. During the war period every available material was being investigated as a steel substitute.

As a part of these first experiments the present Clemson Memorial Stadium and press box were constructed using bamboo reinforcement.

Officers of the organization are: D. C. Ollivet, president; H. C. Humphries, vice-president; P. N. Wise, recording secretary; and D. M. Carmichael, treasurer. P. H. Humphreys is faculty advisor.

The Clemson Little Theater has announced the presentation of the hilarious comedy "Born Yesterday" as its third production for the 1952-1953 season.

First presented on Broadway in 1946, the play was adapted to the screen with phenomenal success, winning Judy Holliday an "Oscar" award for her portrayal of Billie Dawn, the queen of dumb blondes.

Supporting Miss Holliday in the film was Broderick Crawford, who also starred with her in the stage version. "Born Yesterday" has just recently been made available for amateur groups.

TRYOUTS FOR the four female and eleven male parts of the play will be conducted immediately after the Little Theater meeting on Monday, March 16, by Professor John Bennett, who will serve as the director of the play.

The regular meeting will feature a program on theatrical make-up, demonstrated by Mrs. Greta Snowlow. Club room number one of the Y. M. C. A. will be the meeting place for all the members of the theater group and anyone else interested in any phase of theater work.

The coming play will have as its production manager Professor Joe Young, who is at present appearing in the play "The Little Foxes."

Tau Beta Pi Taps 10 For Membership

Ten students have been selected for membership in Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity.

Those selected were: J. E. Dempsey, mechanical engineering junior of Anderson; J. E. Gause, mechanical engineering junior of Piedmont; J. T. McCarter, mechanical engineering junior of Taylors; H. E. McCoy, civil engineering senior of Bishopville; J. W. McIntyre, electrical engineering junior of Hartsville; S. B. Murphy, civil engineering senior of Troy, Alabama; J. H. Sams, civil engineering senior of Clemson; B. C. Smith, civil engineering senior of Greenwood; M. J. Wise, electrical engineering junior of Hartsville; and H. B. Ratteree, mechanical engineering junior of Rock Hill.

THE ORGANIZATION held a meeting for the new members Wednesday night, March 4. The pledges were required to take an entrance exam last Friday. They will be required to write a theme on a non-technical subject as part of their entrance examination.

Formal initiation was held in the little chemistry auditorium this afternoon at 5:45 p. m.

The pledges are required to wear engineering belts around their necks and will shine and polish them so that they may be given to the graduating seniors in the fraternity.

Officers of the organization are: D. C. Ollivet, president; H. C. Humphries, vice-president; P. N. Wise, recording secretary; and D. M. Carmichael, treasurer. P. H. Humphreys is faculty advisor.

SC Gideons Confab Will Open Tomorrow For 3 Day Meeting

The state convention of the South Carolina Gideons will open tomorrow at the Clemson House for a three-day meeting. The Anderson Camp of the Gideons will be the host camp for the convention.

As part of the meeting, Mr. D. J. Depree, president of the National Organization of Gideons, will make a talk to the Cadet Corps in the college chapel, Saturday morning at 8:00 a. m. Students will be excused from Saturday morning inspection to attend the talk. A serviceman's Testament will be given to each student desiring one at the meeting.

AT 6:30 P. M. Saturday night a banquet will be held in the Saber Room of the Clemson House. Dr. R. F. Poole, president of Clemson College, will make the welcome address.

Mr. E. B. Lever is president of the South Carolina Gideons. Mr. Elbert L. Meneses is vice-president of the state organization and president of the Anderson camp.

The Gideons is a businessmen's organization made up of men of all denominations who, in addition to speaking in churches, place Bibles and Testaments in hotels, motels, hospitals and prisons.

Dress And Price Of Tickets Set For Military Ball

Tickets for the Military Ball which will be held March 27 and 28 will be priced at $2.50 for the Friday night formal dance and $2.00 for the Saturday night informal dance. Block tickets will also go on sale at $4.00.

The uniform for the Friday night dance will be as follows: seniors—Blouse, white ducks, sash over shoulder; juniors—Blouse, white ducks, sash around waist; sophomores—Blouse and white ducks; and freshmen—Blouse and winter pants.

The music for the annual ball will be furnished by the Jangleers.

LaMaster Talks To Forum Club

Mr. J. P. LaMaster, head of the dairy department, presented a paper on "Populations" at a meeting of the Forum Club. The meeting was held in the library of the new chemistry building, Monday night, March 9.

Stunt Night To Be Held On March 17

The annual Stunt Night which is sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity of former Boy Scouts of America, will be held in the College Chapel Tuesday, March 17, at 8 o'clock.

All companies and staffs may enter skits or acts for the program. A rehearsal of those participating will be held Monday night, March 16, at 8:45 p. m. in the chapel.

Leonard C. Butler will act as master of ceremonies.

A prize will be given to the best company skit and one to the individual judged best. Door prizes will be given away during the program. Local merchants are donating the prizes.

Admission will be 20c and tickets will be on sale at the door.

T. F. Eskew is publicity chairman. Joe Lindsay is chairman of the Stunt Night committee. Others on the committee are: J. A. White, J. D. Martin, E. L. Carnes, W. L. Bross, J. T. Godwin, S. C. Griffith and R. M. Ashmore.

Skits will be limited to fifteen minutes. Judges for the skits will be picked by Professor Burtner.

Tiger Brotherhood Elects 8 Members

Eight students were elected to membership in The Tiger Brotherhood, honorary service fraternity, Tuesday night.

Those named are: Herbert R. Corbitt of St. Matthews, George R. Buck of Columbia, John T. Green of Sumter, William A. Key of Columbia, Ronald M. North of Stockton, Ga., James P. Truluck of Lake City, and James E. Young of Orangeburg.

Corbitt, vocational agricultural education junior, is a member of the Clemson College Band, the YMCA Cabinet, and the Baptist Student Union.

Buck, architectural engineering sophomore, is on the track team and is a member of the Baptist Student Union.

Green, horticulture junior, is news editor of The Tiger, secretary of the American Society for Horticultural Science, a cheerleader, the Wesley Foundation vice-president.

Humphries, mechanical engineering junior, is vice-president of Tau Beta Pi, a member of Phi Eta Sigma, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Executive Sergeants Club, Blue Key, Wesley Foundation deputation chairman, and color sergeant.

Key, textile manufacturing sophomore, is a member of Alpha Phi Omega and the Presbyterian Student Association.

North, vocational agricultural education junior, is co-editor of The Agrarian, president of Alpha Tau Alpha, member of Alpha Zeta, Future Farmers of America, and Wesley Foundation.

Truluck, pre-medicine sophomore, was a member of the Freshman Platoon and treasurer of the freshman class. He is now a member of Pershing Rifles, Wesley Foundation, and is treasurer of the sophomore class.

Young, animal husbandry freshman, is a member of the Baptist Student Union.

Selective Service Sets Deadline For Applications

National Headquarters of Selective Service has announced that applications for the April 23, 1953 Selective Service Qualification Test must be postmarked not later than midnight March 9.

The deadline is necessary to allow the administrators of the test, the Educational Testing Service at Princeton, N. J., time to process the applications and assign each applicant to the testing center, of which there are 1,000, requested by the student—or to the closest possible alternative center. This will be the last test given during the current academic year.

APPLICATION blanks may be obtained by students from the registrar's office. They do not have to return home to the local board which has jurisdiction over them.

To be eligible to take the Selective Service Qualification Test, an applicant, on the testing date (1) must be a selective service registrant who intends to request deferment as a student; (2) must be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time college course—undergraduate or graduate—leading to a degree; (3) must not previously have taken the test.

Major General Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service, has stated on a number of occasions that new regulations, which will substantially tighten the deferment criteria by raising the standards, are in the process of formulation because the limited manpower supply no longer justifies deferment of so many students and because veterans are now returning in sufficient numbers to take the places of college students drafted.

The G. I. Bill of Rights provides generous financial assistance to veterans just entering college or who had their college careers interrupted by service in the armed forces and who re-enter after completion of their active duty obligations. Regulations are issued by executive order of The President.

The present criteria for consideration for deferment as a student are either a score of 70 or better on the Selective Service College Qualification Test or class standing among the male members in the upper half of the freshman class, upper two thirds of the sophomore class or upper three fourths of the junior class.

Seniors accepted for admission to a graduate school satisfy the criteria if they are among the upper half of the male members of their senior class, or they make a score of 75 or better. Students already enrolled in graduate schools may be considered for deferment so long as they remain in good standing. Presumably, these criteria will be tightened "all up and down the line."

THE CRITERIA are guides for the local boards. The local boards are under no compulsion to follow them, but any local board classification is subject to appeal. The appeal must be filed in writing with the local board within 10 days of the date the local board mails the notice of classification.

General Hershey has urged all eligible students to take the test so they will have scores in their files when the local boards reconsider their cases to determine whether or not they meet the criteria for deferment as students. He has emphasized many times that the present criteria are variables which may be raised or lowered either to increase or decrease the number of students as the national interest shall require.

General Hershey also has repeatedly stressed that no deferment is an exemption. "A deferment is a delay, or postponement," he said, "and in no way

1953 Booby King

Bobby Squires Is Booby King, Morgan Is Second

Bobby Squires was declared 1953 Booby King when the final tabulations were made Tuesday night at the end of the contest sponsored by the junior class to raise funds for the Junior-Senior Banquet. Squires, who is first sergeant of Company D-1, is an agronomy sophomore of Hemingway.

Second and third places in the contest went to George Morgan, textile manufacturing junior of Greenville, and J. J. Snow, agronomy sophomore of Hemingway.

Steve Griffith, president of the junior class, expressed his appreciation to all who helped to make the contest a success. He also emphasized the fact that being elected was not a disgrace, as the contest was only a stunt to raise funds for the Junior-Senior.

Nominations were made for twenty-five cents. Each vote cost a penny. The voting tables were open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. in front of the Juice Shop.

The contest continued from Monday, March 2, through Tuesday, March 10.

Movie Shown To Wesley Foundation

A movie, "We've A Story To Tell," was shown Wednesday night at the regular meeting of the Wesley Foundation. The movie was part of a program on foreign missions.

Don Cochran, missions chairman, was in charge of the program. Next Wednesday night Professor Gaston Gage of the School of Textiles will speak to the Methodist students on "Gambling, Smoking, Dancing, and Swearing."

Nominations Still Being Accepted For Clemson Mother

NOMINATIONS ARE still being accepted for Clemson's Mother of the Year. A new deadline has been set for Wednesday, March 25. Each nomination should be accompanied by a brief biographical sketch, telling why the nominee should be selected. Nominations should be submitted to Philip Porcher, Room 2-301, or Box 796, Clemson.

Several years ago Tiger Brotherhood realized that, in all of the Mother's Day activities, nothing was being done to honor mothers. Thus, the idea of a Mother of the Year was originated.

Each year the Brotherhood selects the nominee, who in their opinion, is outstanding or representative of Clemson mothers.

Students are being given an opportunity to participate in the selection of our Mother of the Year. Nominations will be appreciated.

Georgia Only State To Lower Voting Age

Recently, The Tiger published an editorial in favor of lowering the voting age to 18. In order that both sides of the question may be seen more objectively, we are reprinting the following editorial from the Daily Tar Heel, through the services of the Associated Collegiate Press.—Editor.

By Jim Wilkerson of the Daily Tar Heel, University of North Carolina

FROM TIME to time the question of lowering the voting age to 18 comes up for discussion . . . So far only one of the 48 states—Georgia—has taken this step, which places several thousand new voters on the books.

. . . The idea has wide superficial appeal. The most popular argument in its favor is that anyone old enough to fight for his country is old enough to vote—a high sounding, though not necessarily logical deduction.

If we were forced by a manpower shortage to start drafting 16 and 17-year olds, as some countries did in World War II, would that change our minds?

. . . What about the girls? They aren't drafted at 18. Shall we tell them to come back in three years or just throw them in as a bonus?

. . . The eligibility to vote boils itself down to the question of whether or not a person is able to exercise this right in a wise and intelligent manner. The average 18-year-old is still in high school, usually his last year. He is about to graduate from America's greatest training ground in democracy—the public school.

. . . Many of these youngsters are serious-minded and mature beyond their years, but the majority, as we all know, are rather carefree and limit their profound thoughts and observations for the class room.

. . . Since their teachers' interpretations exert a great deal of influence on their thinking, most of their ideas are formulated in the class room. But again, the class room should be a training ground for citizenship, not a final test.

There should be a period when these academic ideas have time to fall into their proper relations to actual conditions, a period of crystallization, of adjustment to reality as opposed to theory.

We all see big changes in our attitudes and our beliefs since we left high school. Some of them we recognize as juvenile . . . Leaving the protection of home and class room, we find ourselves, reassessing, taking a new account.

. . . I'm sure that the people advocating the 18-year-old vote are guided largely by their conscience and their intentions are the very best.

But issues are easily confused when viewed in the light and the shadow of war, valor and death. It is therefore doubly important that the issues be lifted out, carefully scrutinized and evaluated on their own merits.

Seniors Warned Not To Abuse Privileges

MANY SENIORS are now making applications for employment following graduation. In seeking such positions, it is frequently necessary for the students to visit their prospective employers for interviews.

The Commandant is cooperating completely with these students by approving permits authorizing their absence from the campus.

However, some seniors are taking advantage of this opportunity by submitting permits to seek employment, yet leaving the campus with no intentions of attending an interview.

The boys who are doing this are college seniors. Many of them are on their honor, since offers for interviews are often received by telephone. If any college student should be on his honor, a senior should be. For it is to them that underclassmen look for leadership and integrity.

Because of the frequent violations of this privilege, all senior privileges will soon be at stake. If college officials feel that violating this opportunity enough to warrant expulsion from school—and such punishment has been considered—then these same officials may also feel that seniors do not deserve any special privilege.

In order to avoid any such threat to senior privileges and to assure no misunderstanding between the Commandant's Office and the students, we would like to recommend that any student desiring to leave the campus for an interview attach a copy of the letter requesting the interview to his permit. If no letter is available, the best idea would be to talk to the disciplinary sergeant and/or the Commandant.

In this manner, we can act more like the mature adults which we will soon be recognized as.

Accident Not Club's Fault

TUESDAY NIGHT a tragedy struck Clemson. A boy taken out on a club initiation was struck and killed. Who is at fault is unknown at the present time.

Although it is an unfortunate mark against the club in the minds of some persons, the accident was not the fault of the club, but was more likely an unavoidable accident.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Ever Wonder If M. S. Is Becoming Easier, Harder; Famous Last Words

MILITARY SCIENCE THEN AND NOW

Every now and then about everyone wonders if Military Science is becoming easier or harder here at Clemson. Professor Ball of the electrical engineering department was rummaging through his desk the other day and he came across an old quiz that was given by the military department in 1935.

If you can answer these simple questions you might wish that you were born about twenty years earlier. The quiz concerns the Civil War and the Spanish-American War.

Here are a few of the typical questions on the quiz:

The appointment of General Grant as commander-in-chief of all Federal forces in the field in February, 1864, benefitted the Federal forces by giving them for the first time (1) superiority of numbers (2) unity of command (3) interior tactical lines.

After each defeat during the final campaign in Virginia of the Civil War, General Grant (1) withdrew to the North (2) advanced to the South (3) held his position and recuperated his army.

The surrender of Lee's army on April 9, 1865, occurred at (1) Petersburg (2) Appomattox Courthouse (3) Burke's Station.

Between the Civil War and the Spanish-American War the Regular Army was (1) greatly increased (2) greatly decreased (3) unchanged in strength.

The City of Manila was captured by (1) the American forces (2) the Filipino insurgents (3) the Americans and Filipinos combined.

The armament and equipment of the American forces during the Spanish-American War was (1) up-to-date (2) antiquated (3) neither antiquated nor up-to-date.

The decisive event of the Spanish-American War was (1) the battle of Manila Bay (2) the capture of Santiago (3) the destruction of Cervera's fleet.

If you can answer all these questions you would have more than likely made a hundred on the exam. By this quiz you can judge whether or not the Military Science quizzes are easier or harder now than they used to be.

Just in case you want to check yourselves the answers to the questions are 2-2-2-2-2-3.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS

Famous last words are always quite frequent around the country and even at Clemson you can always hear a few now and then.

Here are some of the more common ones that someone or other utters every year:

"I am going to sign up English this semester or bust."

"He couldn't give us three pop quizzes in a row."

"I have the quiz that the professor gives every year and I can't help but make a 100 on the test."

"Aw, I don't need a haircut."

"The professor is going to have to throw a big curve to get anyone to pass the course. He couldn't flunk us all."

Of course there are many last words that are floating around the campus but these are just a few that almost everyone has been guilty of using at one time or other.

NEW DEADLINE TO MEET

If this column begins to take on a less-rushed appearance it is because the Tiger has just established a new deadline for copy which is Tuesday morning. This might raise the column to a higher plane but at least with me trying to write it on Monday night there will definitely be a change for better or worse.

IF YOU CAN'T STAY AWAKE YOU HAD BETTER GO TO SLEEP

One of the ACP feature articles brought out the fact that the use of No-Doz is partially responsible for the nervous collapse of many students around exam time.

The article went on to say that "If a fellow can't do his work without resorting to such drugs, he doesn't belong in school."

As most college students know, No-Doz, sold without prescription, is standard equipment for many students who feel the need to cram through the wee hours for final exams.

But nevertheless doctors have found that the pills often cause "a severe nervous reaction which, although temporary, is handicapping."

A WORD TO THE WISE

Outstanding Campus Men To Lead Series Of Forums On Company Halls

By R. T. Dunlap, Jr., Chaplain

Monday night, the Y. M. C. A. is beginning a series of forums on each company hall. They will be led by outstanding men of the campus. These forums represent another effort by the "Y" to better the education which we receive here at Clemson.

Although knowledge from textbooks should be our prime goal while at college, there are still other sides to our education, one of which these forums represent. They give the students an opportunity to discuss their ideas and problems with older men who have a greater knowledge of the art of living. It gives the students a chance to meet their professors outside of the classroom, and to know the problems which face the professors, and what can be done to solve them.

These forums will lead to a greater understanding by both parties of the other's problems. All who possibly can should participate. The concerts, intra-mural sports, and some of the clubs on the campus add also to our overall education.

Even the dances should be considered as a part of becoming a more diversified individual. Some schools go so far as to require a course in dancing. We see little of the opposite sex here at Clemson. These dances are a good way to become more familiar with their personalities. Society will take a big part in our later lives and the sooner one learns to cope with its problems the better off he will be. Try to take advantage of these dances by having a date come to them.

All of this boils down to the old saying that "You get out of a thing what you put in it." Put the best that you have forward while you are in college and try to take advantage of the many opportunities offered here at Clemson.

Letters To Tom Clemson

Dear Tom,

Beginning on Monday night, March 16 and continuing twice a week for two weeks the students here at Clemson will have a wonderful opportunity available to them to participate in "organized bull sessions" on the different company halls. These bull sessions, which are known as forums and are sponsored by the "Y", will begin by dealing with various specified subjects, but usually by the close of the evening everything imaginable has been discussed. Not only will the students have an opportunity to express their opinions and listen to those of others, but they will also become better acquainted with the faculty members leading the discussions.

It appears to us that the "Y" has secured a commendable group of campus men to preside at these "pow-wows". These men will not be on the halls to lecture or continue classroom work, but will assist the student in having some good bull sessions.

We would like to urge all of the students to take advantage of these opportunities and to actively participate in the discussions by contributing their thoughts and reflections.

In the interest of a greater Clemson we are sincerely yours.

Miles Bruce, President, Student Body
Lamar Neville, President, Tiger Brotherhood
Bill Reutershan, President, Council of Club Presidents
Gene Shuford, President, Blue Key

Dear Tom,

At Cambridge, when Sir Lawrence Bragg became worried about the physics course, his action was to cut out classes during the middle week of term. But at Clemson, when there is concern about the standards of scholarship, there is a suggestion to increase the number of classes by cutting out Thanksgiving holidays.

Of course neither the patient nor the complaint are the same, but even so—should the treatments recommended be opposite?

I believe that the greatest educational value comes from the things which the student learns in his own time and his own way. Is that an outdated European illusion?

Sincerely yours,
John Hearle,
School of Textiles

(Dr. Hearle is an English scientist visiting in the School of Textiles. In defense of the editorial which appeared in last week's issue, our point was not to abandon the holidays to provide an additional number of days of school, but to do so in order to give the semester more continuity—less interruptions—and the students a better chance to accomplish his studies.—Editor)

Dear Tom,

Tragedy has hit our campus. One of our boys has fallen victim to an old, and even senseless, custom which has for many years been the subject of controversy in our colleges.

Tom, less than a week ago Marion Forlidas was among us—living and breathing and enjoying life. Now he is dead. We can't mitigate that bare fact, Tom, but don't you think that the time has come, although regrettably belated for Marion Forlidas, for all of our clubs and fraternities to stop and examine their initiation practices?

I BELIEVE, and I know that you agree with me, Tom, that the loss of a life can never be completely redeemed by anything on earth, but by preventing the possibility of the recurrence of such a thing, we can at least feel that we have alleviated future sorrow.

Tom, help us all to have a feeling of responsibility for the tragedy which has befallen our school and help us to see that measures are taken so that it will never happen again.

Well, Tom, I've gotten it off my chest now so I guess I'd better close. By the way, Tom, if you decide to mention our little chat to anyone, be sure to tell them that I feel that no one group is responsible for what has happened and no one can make Marion Forlidas live again, but we can all pull together to make Clemson noted for great lives, and not deaths.

PTA Will Discuss Childhood Problems

The Calhoun-Clemson Parent-Teachers Organization will meet Monday night, March 16, at 7:00 o'clock at the Calhoun-Clemson High School.

The topic of the meeting will be "Interaction Patterns in Childhood Development." A demonstrative play as illustrative material will be given by pupils of the school. Mr. E. E. Waite will lead a discussion after the program.

The time of the meeting has been moved up to 7:00 so that the meeting will not conflict with the Lion's Club minstrel to be held that night. The next meeting will be held at the regular time.

Religious Education Should Be Given Priority Over All Other Pursuits

By Major Jack I. Hamlin

"For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" Matt. 16:26.

"Seek ye out of the book of the Lord, and read . . ." Isaiah 34:18.

"Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine." 1 Timothy 4:13.

"Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor, that appeareth for a little time, and which vanisheth away." James 4:14.

It became apparent during religious Emphasis Week, that the great majority of Clemson students are at least professing Christians and interested in furthering their religious education. So, first let's discuss "education" a little bit.

Those who attend college will spend several thousand dollars and from sixteen to over twenty hours each week in classes. In addition to this, the student should spend at least twice this amount of time reading and studying outside of class. A few of you may be able to obtain a college degree without outside reading and study, but even so no one would say, (and you certainly will not admit to yourself) that you can obtain an "education" by merely attending classes.

Apply this reasoning to your religious education. How many of you consider your knowledge of the Word of God progressing in a satisfactory manner just as long as you attend Sunday school and "church more or less regularly"? If so, you are only fooling yourself and you probably know it.

The above quotations from Isaiah and First Timothy are only two of many, many instances where God instructs us to read and study His Word. In the teachings of Jesus, time after time He uses the expression "Have ye not read . . .".

Now read again the quotation above from Matthew. We spend a great amount of money and time obtaining an education. For what? Well, at best perhaps, to "us in making a better living on this earth for the next 20, 30, or 40 years. At the end of this time all of our finite knowledge of the world passes from us. And what do you have left? The only thing you can take with you up on death or at the time of Christ's return is your record and your knowledge of the Word of God which the Bible tells us will never pass away.

Consider then, how much more important it is for us to read, and study, and practice the Word of God. This prepares us for eternity, while our college education is good for only a few years at best.

The passage in James above, tells us that our life is a vapor that appeareth for a little time. God does not give us a periodic report card or transcript of our grades. But in the last analysis, we will certainly pass or fail. There is no comparison between the consequences of failure to know and follow God's Word, and that of failing in any of our worldly pursuits.

To summarize this short discussion, I would like to leave with you two key points. They are worth your careful consideration.

1. Give your religious education priority over all other pursuits. Most of us will have to give more of our time and resources to other things. But never neglect your religious education. You must continue or begin to read and study each day, in order to grow and develop in your knowledge of the Word of God. It is more important than college, profession, family, or anything else in this world.

2. It is important to attend the services and support your church. However, you cannot obtain a complete religious "education" by merely listening to sermons and attending Sunday school classes. You must read and study, and learn to properly divide the Word of God yourself. God commands us to read, but in addition He gives a special blessing to those who do. In Revelation 1:3 He tells us "Blessed is he that readeth . . . and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand."

Astaire Will Be Classed With Other Great Jazzmen; Crosby Does It Again

By Earl Carnes

Fred Astaire... Jazzman. In his long career Fred Astaire has become one of the best known dancers, singers, and all round personalities in the country. With his latest venture he will without a doubt be classed with the other great jazzmen. Fred's singing and dancing is ably backed up by Charlie Shaver (Trumpet), Flip Phillips (Tenor), Oscar Peterson (Piano), Barney Kessel (Guitar), and Alvin Stoller (Drums). In all there are thirty-four songs divided into four volumes. The series entitled "The Fred Astaire Story" includes many of the songs made famous by Astaire in his motion pictures.

BING CROSBY has proven again in his record "You Don't Know What Lonesome Is" that if it's music and has lyric he can sing it... Tony Bennett's "Congratulations to Someone" has the stuff hits are made of... Nat "King" Cole has come through with another smooth one in "Strange".

Billy May renders a neat novelty featuring the Encores on the vocal in "A Cute Piece of Property"... Johnny Smith who first came to anyone's attention with his recording of "Moonlight in Vermont" has repeated his success with "Ghost of a Chance".

One of the musical combinations that is definitely going to be looked forward to by many is the recordings that Benny Goodman and "Satchmo" Armstrong will probably make sometime in April. For this little get-together Goodman is going to have all his old band back with him with the one exception of Harry James. The band is said to have five brass, four saxes, and four rhythm. There should be some great music come out of this "marriage".

FOR THE JAZZ fan the name of "Bunk" Johnson will always be connected with jazz. The last group of recordings he cut (in 1947) have finally been released under the titles of "The Last Testament of a Great New Orleans Jazzman". In this album "Bunk" recorded the records he liked, with the men he liked to play with. The album contains such remembered greats as "Chloe", "You're Driving Me Crazy", "Out of Nowhere", and many others. With these final recordings "Bunk" retired from the music world, a truly great end for a great musician.

Sheriff: "There ain't no law against undressing."

DRAMA REVIEW

Little Theater Scores With Another Success

By John A. Haytas

The past week has seen the Little Theater add another link to the chain of successes that has been forged over the years here at Clemson. Their latest triumph, "The Little Foxes," the second production of the current season, was well-received by the near-capacity audience at the Episcopal Parish House.

Written by Lillian Hellman for the conventional stage with which many of us are so familiar, the play had to be completely restaged for production in the round. Mrs. Gates, the director, handled this tremendous task with the efficiency and tact of a professional director. At times, when the action was completely off-stage, Mrs. Gates had to substitute special effects of her own design. These clever stage movements off-times kept the audience's attention from wandering.

Mr. George Means, as production manager and coordinator, performed his assigned duties with thoroughness and timing worthy of many great producers. Mr. Peter Cunningham is to be commended on his unique lighting arrangement for the production. The lighting was used to great advantage in setting the moods of the various scenes that needed that extra touch for effectiveness. At times this lighting was ineffective and poor, but this can be overlooked in the general analysis.

Students are urged to consider this problem with the future in mind and not just a temporary solution for this semester. Please turn in any suggestions you may have to one of the following members of the committee: J. R. Tolbert, Jr., C. S. Simpson, Jr., J. D. Pitts, F. C. Derrick, T. R. Hawkins, or R. W. Tinsley.

The president of the student body, Miles Bruce, proposed to the assembly that they consider combining the annual Clemson Faculty-Student discussions with the State Student Government Convention which will be held here April 23, 24, and 25. We will have more information on this convention at a later date.

Don't forget to give your recommendations on rat service to one of the committee members. Who knows, you may have a good solution.

preciated when one has seen this particular play several times.

The interpretation and dramatization of the play is above reproach. The whole cast is to be commended on their excellent work. The comedy relief was very ably handled by Emmet Gribbin, who played the part of the negro man-servant, Cal.

The domineering Regina Giddens, as portrayed by Ann Bond, was completely overpowering in her methods of attainment. Bouquets are in order for Mrs. Maxine Trivley, who, as the timid Birdie Hubbard, carried her performance to the hearts of the audience, who were completely on her side from her opening line to her final exit.

The innocent Alexandra Giddens, played by Charlotte Smith, also touched the hearts of the audience. Mrs. Smith was excellent in her interpretation of this young bewildered girl caught up in the family sea of chaos.

The male members of the cast also deserve a great deal of praise for their stellar performances. Gilbert Miller, as Oscar Hubbard, gave his best performance since his entrance into dramatics with The Clemson Little Theater.

THE PORTRAYAL of Ben Hubbard by Joseph Young was also one of his best performances. He literally made the audience hate the "ground he walked on". Gilbert Miller and Joseph Young combined their talents to give the that Jack "Two-diamonds" Barton had better give up being such a chow hound, because he (Jack) has already passed "Jelly Belly" Butler and is gaining on Christopoulo.

that "Mr. B" and Ruth Brown really put on a great show in Greenville Tuesday night. It looked as though the entire Clemson student body was there.

Why don't you tin soldiers live up and live a little? With all you dead pans, the campus looks like a morgue.

that if Tomy "I'm beautiful" Matthews was half the hell he tries to be, there would be no room for the other crums. Wise up, "Punk"—you're nothing.

Forlidas Is Killed In Wreck Tuesday On Seneca Highway

Marion Forlidas, 20, sophomore of Spartanburg, was killed Tuesday night when he was struck by a passing car on the highway between Seneca and Clemson, near Corinth Church.

The accident occurred about 11:30 p. m. He was rushed to Oconee Memorial Hospital where he died of hemorrhage and shock about 12:35 a. m., Wednesday morning.

Forlidas was said to have been standing by a car parked on the side of the road when he was struck.

Lewis Forrester of Seneca was listed as the driver of the car that struck Forlidas.

STUDENT PRINCE TICKET SALES OPEN MARCH 16

Mrs. R. F. Poole and Mrs. Forrest Cookson, co-chairmen of the ticket committee for the Clemson musical production of the "Student Prince" to be presented April 17th and 18th, in the Clemson College Field House, have jointly announced the opening date for the general ticket sale as Monday, March 16th.

Mrs. Poole and Mrs. Cookson and their committee have inaugurated, this year, the use of reserved seats for this production in order to alleviate the necessity of arriving an hour ahead of curtain time in order to secure a seat.

By the use of reserved seats people may now purchase tickets which will secure for them a certain seat in the Field House. The committee has made a seating chart which will show the purchaser the location of their seats. The committee further stated that ushers as well as usherettes will be on hand to guide each individual to his seat.

Adequate aisles are being provided to assure persons sitting in the reserved section of the bleachers, sufficient passage way to and from their seats. It is estimated that one-half of the seats are reserved.

THE TICKET committee has ar-most vivid portrayal of conniving brothers that has been seen in many a day here at Clemson.

John Bennett gives a magnificent performance as the ailing Horace Giddens. As the key figure in the play, Mr. Giddens really expounds on the evil that his wife and brothers-in-law commit by their greed. His death is very well-handled by Mr. Bennett.

Jim Johnson, who is appearing for the first time in a Little Theatre production, is to be commended for his excellent characterization of Leo Hubbard, the mischievous son of Oscar and Birdie Hubbard.

The audience reaction to this play was enthusiastic. They had nothing but praise for the cast, director, and all others that participated in this production. Out-of-townners were especially generous in their praise. Several commented that they didn't realize that the Clemson Little Theatre had such a wealth of talent. They commended especially Joseph Young and Maxine Trivelly for their excellent portrayal of character.

Majority Of Southern Students Are Against Segregation in College

By Associated Collegiate Press

College students overwhelmingly disapprove of enrollment policies which discriminate against Negroes, according to the Associated Collegiate Press National Poll of Student Opinion.

Students from all sections of the country were asked: What is your opinion of college policies which state that Negroes may not enroll there? Here are the results:

	North	South
Approve	5%	35%
Disapprove	90%	53%
No opinion	4%	7%
Other	1%	5%

Students who approve of segregation often point to equal but separate school facilities. "Equivalent schooling can usually be provided elsewhere," says a freshman at Agnes Scott College, a girls' school in Atlanta, Ga.

"Negroes have their own colleges where whites may not enroll," says an engineering junior of The Citadel, Charleston, South Carolina.

A sophomore at Gustavus Adolphus College, Minn., comments, "The sooner we realize Negroes are human and will act human if treated in such a way, the better it will be for all."

A male education student at Southeastern Missouri State Teachers College thinks "mixing" would be "uncomfortable for both white and colored races." But he adds, "I don't mean Mexican and other dark races."

The two per cent who duck the question by choosing "other", usually say the decision "is up to the board of trustees."

Red Cross Aid to VA Hospitals

Each month during the 1931-32 fiscal year, 28,500 Red Cross volunteers served a total of over 3,177,000 hours for patients in 156 VA hospitals, making the days pass more quickly, and helping patients on their way to recovery and rehabilitation.

Tiger Varsity Rifle Team Defeats Georgia Again

In a match that was decided by only two points, Clemson's varsity rifle team defeated the University of Georgia sharpshooters, 933-931, here last Tuesday afternoon. The Tigers previously defeated the Georgians by 44 points in their last meeting.

Callahan of Clemson, Blitch and Tolman of Georgia tied for high honors with 190 points out of a possible 200.

The Clemson team is coached by Capt. John Tate and Sgt. Ben Reid.

OLD TIGERS REVEAL HISTORY

Tigers Of Many Years Ago Resemble Present Day Teams

By Frank Anderson

While digging through some old copies of the Tiger it became evident that the athletes of yesteryear possessed quite a resemblance of our present day heroes. This A & M College at the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains has been known to produce some of the best athletic teams ever seen in the south. After reading through some of the old newspapers one was led to believe that the students of many years ago possessed the same fighting spirit of which the Tigers are noted today.

Thirty Years Ago

Coaches Reed and Hamilton have made an initial call for track hopefuls in order to work the boys into shape for the first meet with the University of Georgia on April 7. Differing from present day, the two coaches are begging for more boys to come and try out for the team. With one hundred boys trying out for the cinder team this year it seems impossible for a track coach to be hunting for participants. Led by only 10 returning lettermen, the two able coaches will try to round the speedsters and weigh men into some kind of an outfit in order to make a fair showing in their seven scheduled meets.

On the diamond the Bengal baseballers are rounding into shape for their first game of the 1923 season with the Buffalo Bisons in Anderson, South Carolina. The Bisons, a strong professional team in the International league, are expected to be a pretty good test of the Tigers strength. Practice so far has consisted of batting practice, infield practice and short intersquad games. Leading the Tigs into the 27 game schedule (which turned out to be very successful) were four returning lettermen which included two hurlers, a catcher and an outfielder. Comparing this 27 game schedule with our schedule this year it might lead one to believe that our Alma Mater is de-emphasizing the great American game. Our 18 scheduled games sure do look small next to this schedule of three decades ago.

The Tiger tennis team is preparing for the one big struggle of the year. That is the 1923 state tennis match. Leading the netmen into the five match schedule is Captain Grier who starred for the four man squad of the previous year. This may also be compared with the tennis teams of today. The twelve match schedule of today dwarfs the schedule of our predecessors.

Freshman athletics have finally begun to come into its own on the Clemson Campus. Like all frosh athletics, Coach Withers had an abundance of freshman talent trying to make a name for themselves in Clemson record books. Taken from the March 14, 1923 "Tiger", "Coach Withers has finally managed to trim his frosh team down to twenty-five men." This could be compared to the multitude of freshmen who show up for initial workouts at the present time.

Twenty Years Ago

Blessed with an abundance of sunlight Coach Jess Neeley is found working with his diamond-men attempting to transform his hopefuls into college baseballers capable of playing in the class with the toughest competition. With only four lettermen returning Coach Jess has a tough job ahead of him to prepare his boys for the opener with the University of Georgia in a few short weeks. So far his boys are looking better than average for a green team. Led by his four returning lettermen Coach Neeley's team went on to end the season with a better than average record.

The track team, hindered by cold weather in their initial workouts have just completed their first trials. This first practice, intersquad meet didn't come out too successful, except for the dashes, with Childs clipping of the one-hundred yard dash in a record breaking speed of 9.8". Later in

FIGHT

That's right! In the U. S. Air Force, it's not the size of the man in the fight—it's the size of the FIGHT IN THE MAN! And Aviation Cadets must have plenty of it. For Cadet training is rugged. If you're good enough . . . tough enough . . . smart enough . . . if you can take it while you're learning to dish it out, you can have one of the most fascinating careers in the world. You'll be equipped to fly the latest, hottest planes. You'll be prepared to take your position as an executive, both in military and commercial aviation as well as in industry. And while you're helping yourself you'll be helping your country.

WIN YOUR WINGS! It takes little over a year to win your wings as a Pilot or Aircraft Observer (Navigator, Bombardier, Radar Operator or Aircraft Performance Engineer). But at the end of your training you graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE? To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will give you a physical examination.
3. Next, you take a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet training class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

WHERE TO GET MORE DETAILS:

Visit your nearest Air Force Base, Air Force Recruiting Office, or your nearest Air Force ROTC unit. Or write to: Aviation Cadet Headquarters, U. S. Air Force, Washington 25, D. C.

COLLEGE STUDENTS PREFER LUCKIES IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.

FORMER CLEMSONITES TURN TO BASEBALL

In last week's issue we mentioned that Ray Mathews and Dick Hendley, former Tiger greats, had signed a contract with the Anderson Rebels, a farm club of the St. Louis Browns. This week we heard that Billy Hair, whose name will linger long in our minds because of his athletic feats, has also considered signing with the Rebels for the coming baseball season.

Just two seasons ago, Ray and Dick both played with the Rebels during the first part of the season, but left their diamond duties to return to the football ranks. Hendley will be counted on heavily for his duties behind the plate while Raging Ray and Sweet William Hair could very easily be two of the three flychasers for the Rebs.

The Browns minor league training camp is in Thomasville, Ga., and the tryouts are expected to begin in the next two weeks. It is very seldom that you will find three such football stars such as Billy, Dick, and Ray coming from the same school and then enter into professional baseball.

BASEBALL PROSPECTS HERE AT CLEMSON GOOD

The Tiger baseball team could be headed for a great season from the looks of their first few weeks of work-outs. Besides the 12 returning lettermen that Coach Bob Smith has in view, he has some excellent freshman prospects in the persons of Bobby Morris and Bill Barnett. Bobby Morris hails from Newberry and is one of the most versatile baseball players here at Clemson. Bobby will probably be used at the backstop position this season, but his capabilities extend past just the catching duties. He is able to play almost any position in the infield having played last season with Liberty at the hot corner. His hitting has been excellent during his prep school days and also led the hitting for Liberty in the fast Greenville Textile League.

Bill Barnett is not noted for his defensive ability as much as his offensive punch. He is slated to be the starting center fielder for the Tigers this season if his hitting continues at its present pace. The Taylor's freshman also played in the Greenville Textile League last season and stood out for Slater.

The amazing thing about these two freshmen is the fact that they both played textile league baseball with two of Clemson's former diamond greats and both freshmen outhit the former Tigs. Bobby Morris played with Ray Mathews on the Liberty team and outhit. Bill Barnett played with Knobby Knoebel on the Slater squad and he, too, outhit the former Bengal slugger. During Knobby's and Ray's baseball days here at Clemson, we figured them as the best sluggers in the Southern Conference, so, if these two freshmen outhit those two boys, we have a lot to look forward to for the coming season which is scheduled to open up March 23 with The Citadel.

INTRAMURAL SOFTBALL BEGINS MONDAY

J. Roy Cooper has announced that the Y. M. C. A. will begin its intramural softball games next Monday afternoon and it is hoped that each company will take a great interest in softball and make the games interesting and fun to watch. The basketball playoffs were held last Tuesday night and Company D-4 emerged victorious, topping C-2 in the finals.

FOOTBALL HAS ONLY A FEW DAYS LEFT

Coach Howard and his cohorts have only a few more days to finish up their spring practice drills and after talking with him about the team prospects at the different positions, you can be readily sure that the boys' afternoons will be long and hard up until the final day, March 21, when they hold their annual spring practice game.

The coaches are managing to get the most out of the boys in the new practice schedule and have four offensive teams running at full blast against two defensive units. One offensive team will run a series of plays against a defensive squad and then another offensive team will do the same thing for their series of plays. While this is going on down at one end of the practice field, another two offensive units are working under the same procedure at the other end of the field. After a hard practice session on the offensive side of the line, the teams will switch and the offensive unit will take over the defensive play. This way, each boy participates in both offensive and defensive scrimmage every afternoon.

Leutwyler, Parker Lead In Votes For All-Tourney Team

The intramural program of the Clemson YMCA is coming into the limelight more and more every day. One of the recent improvements made in this department is the choosing of an all-tournament basketball team. Picked by the officials of the tournament, this team is made up of the outstanding players on company teams on the different companies.

Leading the voting for the tournament team, and honorary co-captains are Leutwyler of C-2, and Parker of D-4. Leutwyler made a name for himself by leading his C-2 teammates to the finals against D-4. Leutwyler led all players in tournament scoring by dumping 35 points in one game against Band Company. Lyn Parker of D-4 really showed up well in the tournament in leading his team in points scored and also sparking the D-4 players to the Intramural Championship. Both Parker and Leutwyler had five points to tie for the first spot on the team.

Tying for the next place on the mythical quintet was Mikells of Co. D-4, and Dozier of D-1. Rounding out the allstar five with a tie for the remaining position, was White of Band Company and Maloney of C-4.

The complete All Tournament team is as follows: Leutwyler, Co. C-2. Parker, Co. D-4. Dozier, Co. B-1. Mikells Co. B-1. White, Co. Band. Maloney, Co. C-4.

D-4 And C-2 Win In Semi Final Play Over B-1 And C-4

Companies D-4 and C-2 gained the finals in the YMCA intramural basketball loop by winning their games on Monday night. D-4 defeated B-1 No. 1 by the score of 36-31 and C-2 romped over C-4, 63-45. All of the games were played in the college field house.

In the first contest, B-4 went on a scoring rampage in the first two quarters and led 24 to 12 at the end of the first half. However, B-1 No. 1 came back to score nineteen points in the final half to shadow the twelve scored by the boys from D-4.

THE GAME WAS very close when the buzzer sounded to begin the fourth quarter. The B-1 No. 1 team scored on numerous floor shots and hit with deadly accuracy on their free throws.

This was not enough to aid their cause, however, for D-4 went on to win by the score of 36-31.

Parker led the scoring for D-4 with fourteen points. He was trailed by Mikell, who scored thirteen. Dozier was high man for the losers with sixteen points. All of these boys showed that they were quite capable of playing good basketball and showed fine competitive spirit throughout the tournament.

D-4 Intramural Champions

Fast and furious action took place in the finals of the Intramural Basketball League last Tuesday night with the troops from D-4 bowling over C-2 in the finals 49-34.

Leading the D-4's in their championship was Lyn Parker who ripped the net for 14 big points to take scoring honors for the night. Close behind Parker in the scoring columns was K. C. McAllister who poured through 13 markers. Also standing out in the victory for the boys from D-4 was Mikells who scored 10 tallies.

Leading the C-2's in their loss to D-4 was Leutwyler who found the hole for 12 markers and Hudson who poured in 10 points.

The referees, J. C. Hicks and Joe Murray, varsity basketballers, had a comparatively easy night of it with both teams playing a clean brand of basketball with only 27 fouls being called throughout the entire game.

Both the intramural champions and the runner-ups will be treated with an open house down at the MCA in the near future. The D-4 champions are eligible to order intramural championship keys.

The complete lineups for both teams are as follows: Company D-4 Mikells, f. Odom, f. Stehmyer, f. Parker, c. Waldrop, c. Thornhill, g. Ross, g. McAllister, g. Templeton, g.

Company C-2 Hudson, f. Kooser, f. Freeman, c. Jefferies, c. Hatchell, c. Leutwyler, g. Hinson, g.

THE BOYS FROM C-2 showed plenty of scoring punch and scored almost at will against the lads from D-4.

Leutwyler was high man for the victors with twenty-two points. Kooser was hot on his heels with twenty points. Singleton collected sixteen points for the C-4 boys and Maloney hit for fourteen.

C-2 was ahead by seventeen points at the end of the first half, 38-21. They fought gamely to overtake the team from C-4 but did not have the scoring punch to turn defeat into victory. They could not trim the C-2 lead under six points during the entire contest.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil
Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

Here's a sad cotton tale: poor Paul was in a stew about his hare until his paw wrote: "I ear you got a bun on because your girl left you. Now, lettuce look at the bre's facts. To get in on the bunny huggin', smart rabbits foot it down to any toilet goods counter for Wildroot Cream-Oil, America's biggest-selling hare tonic. So fuzz thing tomorrow, invest 29¢ in a bottle or handy tube. Contains soothing Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. Grooms the hare. Relieves annoying dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test." Sheedy tried Wildroot Cream-Oil and now he's a jump ahead of every Tom, Dick and Harvey. So what're you waiting fur? Get Wildroot Cream-Oil today, and ask for Wildroot at your barber's. You're bound to like it!

Footballers Nearing End Of Spring Drills

By Carroll Moore

The Clemson gridmen are now past their half-way mark in their rugged spring practice drills and the inter-squad tussle last Saturday proved that much more work is needed before they can afford to open up next season's rough football schedule.

Coach Frank Howard stated that they had been working the boys in trying to teach them the fundamentals of the newly installed T-formation and during these final days of spring practice, it is his job to find the team that is capable of handling both the offensive and defensive chores in a game since the new rule prohibits free substitution. He added that the boys have been working awfully hard and all of them have strong desires to make this split-T formation click with precision.

Undoubtedly, the outstanding man on the field last Saturday afternoon was the field general of the reserve team, Forrest Calvert. Forrest, running from the quarterback slot on the team that was made up of fourth stringers and downward, was moved up to the varsity Monday afternoon and continued to display a form of running and passing that could easily make him an outstanding split-T quarterback next season. When Howard saw his performance last Saturday, he said, "that's the man I need on my team"—so he graduated from the white shirted reserves to the orange shirted varsity.

The center slot seems to be in most capable hands as Wingo Avery continues to stand out in each afternoon practice session. Coach Howard said that his main problem still lies within his guard position. He stated that so far he has been unable to find any two guards that look good on both offensive and defensive scrimmages consistently. It seems that every day he has a different set of guards running on the first team hoping to find two that will fill his needs.

The tackle position seems to be the most stable position at the present time. Nathan (Red Face) Gressette and Clyde White both are looking good at the big men's slot. Gressette could very easily develop into one of the best tacklers ever to play for Clemson if he continues his aggressive style of play.

At the present time, Dreher (Goon) Gaskins, counted on to be the outstanding man in the Tiger line this season, both on offense and defense, is a sure starter at the right end while Scott Jackson is the leading candidate at the left flank position.

Students May Go To Europe

Council On Student Travel Announces 2 Round Trip Sailings During Summer

Training Program Offers Several Fellowship Grants

The Southern Regional Training Program, a program designed to encourage the training of executive leaders and skilled administrators for the public service, is offering several fellowship grants to interested students.

Each fellowship carries a grant of $1200 and university fees for a period of one year. Eligible students are those who have a good college record and who are now completing requirements for a bachelor's degree. Majors or minors in any of the social science fields are desirable but not imperative.

Fellows spend one quarter at each of the Universities of Alabama, Tennessee, and Kentucky, and a three-month internship at some public administrative office in the southern states.

Application forms may be obtained from the dean or department head of your school, or by writing to the Educational Director, Southern Regional Training Program, Drawer 1, University, Alabama.

The Council on Student Travel recently announced two major round-trip sailings to Europe aboard the S. S. AROSA KULM for students and teachers this summer.

The AROSA KULM will sail from Quebec for London, Le Havre, and Bremerhaven on June 9 and July 4; return sailings will leave Bremerhaven on August 11 and September 2 for London, Bremerhaven, and Quebec.

AS IN PAST years, the Council will sponsor educational and recreational programs for student travelers. On the eastbound voyage the program is directed toward orienting students to Europe by such things as language classes and discussions of European history, politics, art, and culture. On the return voyage students will discuss and evaluate their summer experiences.

Aboard the AROSA KULM the Council furnishes a library, a record collection of both popular and classical selections, sports and game equipment, and a number of movies. In addition to games of chess, checkers, bridge, ping-pong and shuffleboard, there are dances, talent shows, and many other special programs.

The Council on Student Travel is composed of 37 national, educational and religious organizations,

Dr. S. J. L. Crouch, pastor of Fort Hill Presbyterian Church; President R. F. Poole, and David M. Currie, director of the department of campus Christian life, Higher Education Board of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, discuss plans for assisting college professors of the Presbyterian faith to make a more significant contribution to higher education in the South. Prominent Southern educators who are also Presbyterian laymen attended the meeting held here last week-end. (Photo by John Fletcher.)

Bap. Student Union Will Hold Banquet

Clemson's Baptist Student Union will hold its annual banquet Saturday, March 28, at 6 p. m. in the Sabre Room of the Clemson House.

Reservations have been set at $1.60 per person, and must be made in advance with Ferdie Alsbrook. Besides the dates individually invited there will be a deputation from Winthrop.

Students wishing information about boat fares, etc., should write to the Council on Student Travel, 179 Broadway, New York 7, New York.

Lawton To Speak At Vespers March 25

Max Lawton of Greenville will speak at the YMCA Vesper program Sunday night. His subject will be "Physical Blindness and Spiritual Eyesight." He will bring his seeing eye dog and will give a brief demonstration.

To Members of the Cadet Corps:

We are excusing students from the Saturday morning inspection in order that they may attend a convocation sponsored by the Gideons and held in the College Chapel at eight o'clock that morning.

I am asking the Commandant to arrange for the students to march in by companies as I believe the meeting will prove worthwhile and informative. Small pocket editions of the Bible will be given those who desire them.

I trust the Cadet Corps will cooperate with us in making this meeting a success.

The Clemson Lions Club will present "On Stage America", a minstrel and amateur contest, Monday and Tuesday nights, March 16 and 17, Calhoun-Clemson High School auditorium. Performances will begin at 8 p. m.

The song, "America's On Stage Tonight," opens the minstrel review. Men of the minstrel and teen-age chorus girls back up the talent acts.

Mr. Victor Hurst will serve as interlocutor. The minstrel circle, composed of ten men, will impersonate such well-known personalities as Amos and Andy, Kingfish, Brother Crawford, Rochester, Aunt Jemima, Miz Blue, Ball and Chain, Madam Queep, and Sapphire.

CAST IN THESE roles are O. R. Johnson and Boots Dillard of Seneca—Amos and Andy; Dave Moorhead—Madam Queen; David Johnson—Miz Blue; R. H. Snoddy—King Fish; Jim Campbell—Brother Crawford; John Coppleston—Ball and Chain; John C. Galloway—Aunt Jemima; J. H. Lever—Rochester; and Walter Purser—Sapphire.

The chorus girls include Nella Marie McIntyre, Sylvia Marler, Ann King, Lucy McAlister, Queenie Martin, Nelma Purser, Jo Ann Manley, Verna Ann Wilbanks, Joann Barsh, Nancy DeFore, Nancy Dillard, Carolyn Bennett, Elizabeth Jane Cook, Lilla Wade, and Genie Paden.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Lions Club or the chorus girls. Admission has been set at $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for all students, including tax.

Soph. 'Y' Council Will Sponsor Dance

The Sophomore 'Y' Council will sponsor a dance in the club rooms of the 'Y' Saturday night from 8:30 to 11:00. Anderson College girls will be present.

The admission funds will be used to pay for the bus to provide transportation for the girls and to assist with other work of the Sophomore Council.

"USE MARCHING FIRE—and follow me!" Shouting this command, Lieutenant Carl Dodd struck out in advance of his platoon to lead the assault on Hill 256, near Subuk, Korea. During the fierce fighting that followed, he constantly inspired his men by his personal disregard of death. Once, alone, he wiped out a machine gun nest; another time, a mortar. After two furious days, Dodd's outnumbered, but spirited, force had won the vital hill.

"You were helping, too," says Lieutenant Dodd. "You and the millions of other citizens who have bought U.S. Defense Bonds. For your Bonds, which keep America strong, were behind the productive power that gave us the weapons we used."

"I hope you'll go on buying Bonds—always. Because your Bonds—and our bayonets—make an unbeatable combination for keeping safe the land that we all love!"
